THING

THE LINCOLN-SUDBURY REGIONAL PLAYERS '74

It were all one that I should love a bright, particular star . . .
— Shakespeare

Getting into character

IX

COME TO
THE REGIONAL PLAYERS
PRESENT:

Turning and turning

in a widening gyre . . .

THE PLOUGH AND THE STARS

The falcon cannot hear the falconer . . .

Things fall apart; the centre cannot hold;
Mere anarchy is loosed upon the world,
The blood-dimmed tide is loosed, and everywhere
The ceremony of innocence is drowned . . .

The best lack all conviction, while the worst

Are full of passionate intensity.

. . . And what rough beast, its hour come round at last,
Slouches toward Bethlehem to be born?
— William Butler Yeats

Crew at work

OKLAHOMA

We're only saying, "You're doing fine, Oklahoma!"

Aunt Eller, whose tough exterior conceals a heart of gold, is spellbound . . .

. . . as Curley describes his "surrey with the fringe on top." Laurey is unimpressed.

Meanwhile, as he tells Aunt Eller, Will Parker is trying to get engaged . . .

. . . to Ado Annie, the Girl Who Cain't Say No . . .

. . . but whose father can and does.

So when at times the mob is swayed
To carry praise or blame too far,
We may choose something like a star
To stay our minds on and be staid.
